

A COMMUNITY SERIES: HEALTH CARE REFORM & YOU

In cooperation with:
United States Congresswoman
Lucille Roybal-Allard

Congresswoman
Lucille Roybal-Allard
40th District

&

Assemblymember
Cristina Garcia

Come to this FREE event, to learn about:

- How the Affordable Care Act (ACA) affects you
- New health insurance options
- Financial help to buy health insurance
- How to enroll in health insurance
- Changes to Medicare & Medi-Cal
- Community resources & more!

Wednesday, November 13, 2013

6:00pm – 9:00pm

Program, Community Resource Fair & Health Insurance Enrollment

VETERANS MEMORIAL PARK - RECREATION BUILDING
6364 Zindell Ave., Commerce, CA 90040 (free parking)

HOSTED BY:

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH:

Alzheimer's Association – California Southland Chapter, Bienvenidos, County of Los Angeles Community & Senior Services, County of Los Angeles Department of Public & Social Services, El Aviso, Hoy Los Angeles, Human Services Association, La Opinion, Los Angeles County Office of Education, Mexican American Opportunity Foundation, THINK Together, Triage Cancer, Univision, The Whole Child, YMCA, 211 LA County

1 hour of FREE
continuing education units
for MFTs and LCSWs

As accredited by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences
(Provider # PCE 4155)

Can't attend this event? These events are taking place throughout Los Angeles County. Visit www.ACAandYou.org for more information and upcoming events. Questions: 424.261.4628 or Ernesto.Morales@RoseHills.com.

This event will be translated into Spanish through headsets.