

Quick Guide to Health Insurance Options

Follow the steps below to learn about your health insurance options.

- 1. Are you eligible for COBRA? (i.e., you had insurance through your parents' employer-sponsored health insurance through an employer with 20+ employees)
 - If yes, you may elect COBRA within 60 days of your qualifying event (e.g., aging out of your parents' plan). Determine how long you have COBRA based on your qualifying event (between 18 and 36 months).
 - If yes, instead of electing COBRA, you may choose to purchase a plan in your State Health Insurance Marketplace. Go to step 4.
 - If no, go to step 2.
 - If you are currently on COBRA, but are close to the end of coverage, go to step 3.
- 2. Are you eligible for state COBRA? (Based on state law and employer size)
 - If yes, you may choose to elect state COBRA within the deadline. Determine how long you have state COBRA coverage based on your state law. Contact your state insurance agency for more information.
 - If yes, instead of electing state COBRA, you may choose to purchase a plan in your State Health Insurance Marketplace. Go to step 4.
 - If no, go to step 3.
 - If you are currently on state COBRA, but close to the end of coverage, go to step 3.
- 3. Does your state provide the right of conversion? (Right to convert your employer group plan into an individual plan. Based on state law, so contact your state insurance agency for more information)
 - If yes, consider following your state's rules to convert your group plan into an individual plan. If you are not interested in conversion, go to step 4.
 - If no, go to step 4.
- 4. Are you a U.S. Citizen or lawfully present in the U.S.?
 - If yes, contact your state's Marketplace to view your private health insurance options and determine if you are eligible for financial assistance to buy a plan (i.e., you have an income between 138% and 400% of the federal poverty level). Visit www.HealthCare.gov to connect to your state's Marketplace.
