

ABOUT TRIAGE CANCER

Triage Cancer is a national, nonprofit organization that provides cancer survivorship education and resources to patients, survivors, caregivers, advocate, and health care professionals, through educational events, a speakers bureau, and online materials and resources.

INSURANCE & FINANCE INTENSIVE

Tuesday, October 17, 2017

Registration: 9am-9:15am

Program: 9:15am-5pm

Lunch will be provided.

The Center for Cancer Prevention and Treatment - St. Joseph's Hospital

Todos Conference Room

1000 W. La Veta Ave.

Orange, CA 92868

Self-Parking $8 ~ Valet Parking $5

Free CEUs:

Applications are pending to provide continuing education units for nurses and social workers.

All attendees will receive a certificate of course completion.

Triage Cancer has developed a FREE training for health care professionals and advocates, with valuable information to help navigate patients and caregivers through the continuum of cancer care.

Get answers to questions you didn't know to ask, about:

- The U.S. health care system
- Individual & employer-sponsored health insurance
- Medicare & Medicaid
- Tips on using health insurance & appeals
- Navigating disability insurance & appeals
- Managing financial toxicity & getting financial help

Partners:

St. Joseph Health
St. Joseph Hospital

Orange County
Cancer Coalition

Register at:
TriageCancer.org/Intensive