Dear {FIRST_NAME|Friends},
It's hard to believe that Labor Day is just around the corner, signaling the end of summer. Where has the time gone? If you are like us, you may feel that you have less and less time each day to get everything done.

That is why we do our best to provide you with cancer survivorship information in a variety of formats. If you only have a few moments, read a short Educational Blog. On days that you have a bit more time, join us for one of our Cancer Survivorship Webinars, or scroll through our Resources Website.

Whatever fits in your day best, we hope that you will find at least one way to take advantage of these useful resources. And remember, if you are hosting an educational event, you can bring a Triage Cancer Speaker to your community, by filling out a Speaker Request Form.

Educational Opportunities

Triage Cancer Webinar Series

We have some interesting topics coming up in our Cancer Survivorship Webinar Series, ranging from Understanding Medicare to Don't Stress the Stress. Check out the entire line up and register today!

Partner Events

Triage Cancer speakers will be presenting during several FREE webinars and teleconferences hosted by our friends at Cancer and Careers:

Health care professionals: join us for an Educational Series covering, in three segments, where to start, working through treatment, and taking time off. Free CEU's available!

Everyone: attend the last two calls on the Affordable Care Act, which will provide information about recent changes to our health care system, and tips as we inch closer to the next open enrollment period.

Make sure to register for each event separately!

Shop for a Cause

Do you use Amazon? Did you know that you can help out Triage Cancer, just by shopping?

It's true! Through Amazon's charitable program, Amazon Smile, every time you shop, Amazon will donate to us and it won't cost you a penny. You can expect the same prices, selection, and shipping options as with Amazon.

Just visit smile.amazon.com and type in "Triage Cancer" as the charity you wish to support. Amazon will remember your choice in the future.

Thank you for your support and happy shopping!

Around Town

If you've visited our website lately, you may have noticed that we are upgrading our Events page. While that is under construction, we wanted to share some pictures with you of recent events we have participated in, including: an in-service training in Honolulu; Cancer and Career's National Conference on Work and Cancer in New York; the American Society of Clinical Oncology's Annual Meeting in Chicago; and the National Women's Survivors Convention in Nashville.
