From Our Partners

We are delighted to continue our partnership with TheSAMFund on Finances 101: A Toolkit for Young Adults with Cancer. The goal of this project is to help young adults face head on the financial challenges most often faced by young adults coping

She is the founder and Executive Director of Surviving And Moving Forward: The SAMFund for Young Adult Survivors of Cancer, a nonprofit organization uniquely designed to give young adults the tools and resources to regain their financial health after cancer treatment. By providing direct financial assistance as well free online support and education, The SAMFund helps young adults move forward towards their personal, professional, and educational goals because they realize cancer isn't free. The SAMFund has awarded more than $1.35 million in grants for a wide range of living, medical and other expenses.
