Aging in Place

Staying at home while getting older, rather than moving to a care facility, takes planning. This webinar covers the legal, financial, and practical considerations involved in aging in place safely, including home modifications, in-home care options, and how to pay for them.

JUL 27

Accommodations at Work, Home, & School

This webinar walks through practical examples of accommodations in different settings, including what rights apply, how to make a strong accommodation request, and what steps to take if an employer, school, or housing provider denies a request or pushes back.

Planning Ahead: Putting an Estate Plan Into Action

This webinar will cover the practical side of estate planning: how to organize and share key documents and information; managing digital and non-traditional assets; how to make it easier for a caregiver or agent to manage finances, benefits, and care; and other key things to think about when planning ahead.

SEP 21

Ready, Set, Enroll: Navigating Open Enrollment for 2028

This webinar covers the basics of open enrollment for 2028, including important deadlines, how to review current coverage, compare new plan options, and understand common health insurance terms. Get practical tips for choosing a plan that fits health care needs and a budget.

OCT 20

Medicare in 2028: What to Know for Open Enrollment

Medicare's open enrollment period is the annual chance to review current coverage and make changes for the year ahead. This webinar walks through the process, whether someone is considering a new plan, weighing drug coverage options, or just confirming their current plan still fits their needs.
